

Early College Academy

A Partnership between Metropolitan Community College- Longview, Center, Grandview and Hickman Mills

What is Early College Academy?

The Early College Academy is for 11th and 12th graders who want to work towards earning their Associate's Degree while in high school. Students attend classes at Longview, earning approximately 42 college credit hours at the end of two years (all paid for by the school district!). This is definitely for the serious-minded student who plans to earn a 2- or 4-year degree after high school—minimum GPA requirement of 3.0. Students MUST apply to MCC and pass the Accuplacer test to be selected.

The Early College Academy is a 2 year program where students will:

- Participate at the 11th and 12th Grade Level
- Earn credit for High School Courses: Core classes
- Earn College Courses: "Core 42" transferable classes
- Earn Summer Courses (by request only)
- Industry Connection: College Credit

There is no cost to the student/family to participate in this program.

Student/family commitment: Specific to the Academy

- Students commit to staying in the program and to exhibit academic integrity through maintaining a 3.0 GPA in both college and high school courses

Market Value Asset Earned:

- College Credit
